Thanks Jasmine! She has asked s 9(2)(a) about it and was told that it's an operational process so the Minister wouldn't be commenting.

Best wishes,

Hi s 9(2)(a)

FYI below from RNZ who are asking questions about the re-evaluation projects. It's possible she might come to you next.

Any issues let me know.

Cheers
Jasmine

Hi,

Me again. In October the Transport Minister said a decision on these two and one other project would be made by December, is there a reason for the delay?

Thanks

Hi s 9(2)(a) [REDACTED]

Happy New Year!

I don't, sorry. But here is a statement that we provided to the Dom Post on Friday, which can be attributed to a Transport Agency spokesperson if you need:

The Melling Interchange and Petone to Grenada are two of a number of projects currently being reviewed by the NZ Transport Agency, to evaluate whether they align with the new vision for our transport network. Once this work has been completed, work on these projects may proceed as currently planned, be staged differently or explore lower cost options. This could mean that previous shortlist options, or even the preferred option, may change. The NZTA Board met in December to consider next steps, however there is still more work to be done. We expect to be able to make announcements about decisions on these projects in the coming months.

Cheers
Jasmine

Hi Jasmine,

Hope you're well!

Do you know when the re-evaluation of the Petone to Grenada roads is expected to be finished?

Thanks,
