Yup - heading out at 3:20pm, won't be able to take calls until 5pm.

Wed, 24 Mar, 6:24 PM

Hjj in Margot I have your suggestions - when it comes to the comments about instructions and if there will be a difference between consultation - this is where I was of the understanding the page would look identical for both. - yet would act differently 😅 so really need to get this ironed out with Monica - I am sorry I have tired to set up multiple phone calls with her I'll try again first thing - [redacted] and I have spoken also and made a few changes and I have added more road to zero stuff. Honestly - I can't wait to get through this part and actually nail it
