

'Big car parks make me anxious, I'm not sure which way to go and there is traffic everywhere, it is easier just to not go.'

Lives
Wellington

About Josh

Meet Josh, he is autistic and physically fit. Josh walks, cycles and uses public transport to get around his community but sometimes he gets confused during busy times. If he gets confused he sometimes suffers extreme anxiety and finds it difficult to ask for help. Josh has a low income and often walks long distances rather than paying for transport.

Personal information

Age 23

Lives House

Supported by Family

Income

NZ median income: $33,000

Daily states

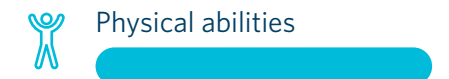

Transport

Top information sources

Capabilities

Transport dislikes

- Large car parks
- Large busy intersections
- Confusing roadworks sites