

'If a pram crossing is missing or too steep, it can mean I have to divert hundreds of metres. It makes every outing a huge effort.'

Lives
Christchurch

About Wendy

Meet Wendy. Wendy has a degenerative condition that makes it difficult for her to move independently. She has used a wheelchair for the last decade. Wendy is in her 40s. She experiences chronic pain and cannot drive. Using a powered wheelchair is liberating for Wendy as it means she can get out and about. Wendy has a low income and navigating busy urban streets can be risky because steep crossings and uneven surfaces aggravate her pain.

Personal information

Age 44

Lives Apartment

Supported by
Family, friends, community

Income

NZ median income: $33,000

Daily states

Transport

Top information sources

Social media

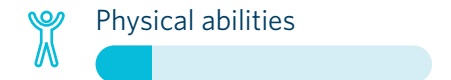

Internet news and websites

Email

Capabilities

Transport dislikes

Temporary works

Paths with steep crossfall

Missing kerb cuts