What the position involves

Accountabilities

As well as being accountable for the Waka Kotahi values and behaviours, your role has the following specific key accountabilities:

- Contribute to the development, assessment and promotion of sound solutions to transportation issues that are safe, responsive, innovative and maximise outcomes while taking a whole of system approach to planning across modes, functions, place and time
- Actively involved in preparing and reviewing clear and concise investment business cases for strategies, programmes and projects with recommendations to Waka Kotahi decision makers
- Work with internal teams and external stakeholders to prioritise integrated land use and transport planning to support achievement of Waka Kotahi priorities
- Interpret technical data to explain, in simple terms, the cause, effect and consequence
- Liaise across technical and other agency disciplines within Waka Kotahi and wider sector to draw information together and provide best for outcomes advice
- Contribute to the delivery of projects within time, cost and quality standards
- Identify, address and as needed escalate significant project or programme risks or issues to your manager in a timely way.
- Ensure assigned projects are programmed to deliver on the state highway forecast for the region
- Establish and manage relationships with key internal and external partners and stakeholders
- Identify and take advantage of opportunities for continuous improvement in business processes and in doing so deliver improved value to customers and stakeholders
- Represent Waka Kotahi at various transport forums and public engagement events.

There is an expectation that the role accountabilities may evolve over time. You may also be involved in other activities as part of a career and development plan. These will be reflected in your performance and development goals that are set in discussion with your People Leader.

Working effectively with Māori

Te Ara Kotahi – our Māori Strategy – supports Waka Kotahi to work effectively with Māori and is underpinned by uara (values) and our mātāpono (principles) of – Rangatiratanga, Manaakitanga, Kaitiakitanga, Whanaungatanga, Te Tiriti o Waitangi, Mana o te Reo, Huna Kore (no surprises approach), Auahatanga (creativity and innovation), Whakaponu (integrity and honesty) and in recognition of Cultural Values.

As Waka Kotahi is an agent of the Crown, Te Tiriti o Waitangi/The Treaty of Waitangi is important to everything we say or do. We recognise it as an enduring document central to New Zealand's past, present and future. Building and maintaining meaningful
