What to expect

The agent will process your application, check your identification, take your photo and a sample signature, check your eyesight and book appointments for any theory or driving tests.

When your photo is taken you mustn't wear sunglasses, a hat, any head coverings or anything else that might obscure your face or prevent the photo from being a good likeness. You may wear an item for religious or medical reasons provided you supply a signed statement confirming this, and wearing the item doesn't prevent the photo from being a good likeness. Please don't wear reflective or fluorescent clothing, as this may interfere with the quality of the photo.

You'll need to pay the appropriate fee with your application.

Once you've completed the application process, and passed any required tests, you'll be issued with a temporary driver licence.

Your photo driver licence should arrive in the mail within 10 days.

Tests

Information to help you prepare for and pass the tests is available on Learning to drive: Getting your car licence (Factsheet 45), Learning to ride: Getting your motorcycle licence (Factsheet 28) and in The official New Zealand road code.

If you normally wear glasses or contact lenses to drive, make sure you bring them with you to the test.

If you can't sit your theory test in English, go to www.nzta.govt.nz/theory-test or call us on 0800 822 422 for more information about sitting tests in other languages.

Practical tests are conducted in English. If you have difficulty speaking or understanding English you can bring an interpreter.

The testing officer may attach a small video camera to the front windscreen at the beginning of your practical test. The camera records the test and enables the testing officer's performance to be audited. It also assists in investigating complaints where the test result is disputed. If you don't want your test recorded, please let the testing officer know.

Eyesight

You must prove that your eyesight is up to standard. You can:

- pass an eyesight screening check at a driver licensing agent, or
- present a satisfactory eyesight certificate or medical certificate (no more than 60 days old).

The certificate must be issued by a New Zealand-registered optometrist or health practitioner. If you don't pass the eyesight check at an agent, you'll need to provide a certificate instead.

If you have sight in only one eye, or have only one eye (monocular vision) you'll need to present an eyesight certificate.

Endorsement renewal

If you're renewing your licence and you hold forklift, rollers, tracks or wheels endorsements, these will be renewed with your driver licence.

Passenger, vehicle recovery, driving instructor, testing officer or dangerous goods endorsements need to be renewed separately. We'll send you a reminder before they expire.

Warning

It's an offence to supply false or misleading information and may lead to court action. The consequences can include losing your licence and/or paying a fine.

If you don't supply all the information we need, your application may be delayed or declined.

More information

The information on this form is a general guide only. It doesn't replace legal advice, and your exact requirements will depend on legislation.

If you want more information go to www.nzta.govt.nz/licence or call us on 0800 822 422.

Responsibilities

Driver licences make our roads safer for everyone and prove drivers are qualified and legally entitled to be behind the wheel. You must always carry your licence with you when you drive.

Your address will be recorded on the database and you should notify Waka Kotahi NZ Transport Agency if you change your address.

Changing or cancelling

If you need to change or cancel your theory test please visit your driver licensing agent as soon as possible. Another fee will be required.

If you need to change or cancel your practical test, you can do this online at www.nzta.govt.nz/online. A fee may be required.

Where there are two or more complete working days (excluding weekends and public holidays) between the day you change or cancel your test and the date of your appointment, you'll need to pay a rescheduling fee of $16.40 (note: if you change your test online at www.nzta.govt.nz/online the reschedule fee may be waived).

Where there are less than two complete working days (excluding weekends and public holidays) between the day you change or cancel your test and the date of your appointment, you won't pay a rescheduling fee but you will need to pay a further test fee.

You may be eligible for a refund of the first test fee paid where the cancelled test time is taken by another person. If the test fee is refunded, a processing fee of $16.40 will be deducted. You can download an Application for refund of driver licence fee form (DL13) online at www.nzta.govt.nz/form-DL13
