What to bring

- Your completed application form.
- Medical certificate completed by a registered health practitioner (if applicable, see medical certificate section on page 2).
- Your glasses or contact lenses if you wear them for driving.
- Certificate of completion of course (your D endorsement certificate must be no more than 60 days old).
- Evidence of identity (must be original - no photocopies).
You must provide either:
 - your New Zealand photo driver licence (can be current or expired up to two years), or
 - your current New Zealand passport, or
 - your current overseas driver licence and your current overseas passport, or
 - your New Zealand birth certificate (issued on or after 1 January 1998) and a student ID card, Kiwi Access or 18+ card, power bill or bank statement*, or
 - another combination of acceptable evidence of identity documents* detailed on Identification for driver licensing (Factsheet 20) or at www.nzta.govt.nz/identification

*If neither document has a photo, you'll also need to provide a verified image (see Factsheet 20 for more information).

- Evidence of name change (must be original - no photocopies).
If you want to change the name on your driver licence, or if the name on your identity documents isn't the same as the name on your licence, you'll need to provide acceptable evidence of name change. This must be one of the following that was issued in New Zealand:
 - your marriage or civil union certificate
 - your copy of particulars of marriage or civil union
 - your dissolution of marriage or civil union order
 - a certificate of annulment
 - a deed poll certificate, change of name certificate, or birth certificate showing both names
 - a statutory declaration issued by Births, Deaths and Marriages confirming the name change.

Note: if your evidence of identity and name change documents don't provide a clear link to the name currently on your driver licence, you may be required to provide additional documentation.

- EFTPOS, credit card or cash for paying the fee.

To check the amount you'll pay go to www.nzta.govt.nz/licence-fees or call us on 0800 822 422.

Where to apply

Take your completed form and all original documents to any driver licensing agent. Go to www.nzta.govt.nz/agent to find an agent in your area.

A customer services representative will process your application, check your identification, may take your photograph and a sample signature for your licence as well as check your eyesight.

You must pay the appropriate fee when you make your application.

Eyesight

You must prove that your eyesight is up to standard. You can:

- pass an eyesight screening check at a driver licensing agent, or
- present a satisfactory eyesight certificate or medical certificate (no more than 60 days old).

The certificate must be issued by a New Zealand registered optometrist or health practitioner (see page 2). If you don't pass the eyesight check at an agent, you'll need to provide a certificate instead.

If you have sight in only one eye, or have only one eye (monocular vision) you'll need to present an eyesight certificate.

Responsibilities

Driver licences make our roads safer for everyone and prove drivers are qualified and legally entitled to be behind the wheel. You must always carry your licence with you when you drive.

Your address will be recorded on the database and you should notify Waka Kotahi NZ Transport Agency if you change your address.

More information

The information on this form is a general guide only. It doesn't replace legal advice, and your exact requirements will depend on legislation.

If you want more information go to www.nzta.govt.nz/licence or call us on 0800 822 422.

Email address

Giving us your email address is optional. We'll email you information and reminders about your application and driver licensing, and other Waka Kotahi services, including asking for feedback on our services and the transport system. We recommend using an email address that's unique to you, so only you can see information we send you.

Warning

It's an offence to supply false or misleading information and may lead to further court action. The consequences can include losing your licence again and/or paying a fine.

If you don't supply all relevant information, your application may be delayed or declined.

Privacy information

The information requested is required for Waka Kotahi (and its agents) to process your application for a driver licence, to produce your photo driver licence card, and to maintain the Driver Licence Register. Collection of this information is required by part 3 of the Land Transport (Driver Licensing) Rule 1999.

Your photo will also be captured for the purpose of printing it on your driver licence card, and to enable the Department of Internal Affairs, Department of Corrections, Ministry of Justice, Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment (Immigration), New Zealand Customs Service, and the New Zealand Police to use it for the purposes of identity verification and law enforcement under s200 of the Land Transport Act 1998, or for one of the purposes outlined in part 7 of the Privacy Act 2020. Your photo may therefore be disclosed to one of these agencies, for one of these purposes.

Waka Kotahi (and its agents) will hold, store, use, and disclose any personal information collected on this form in accordance with the Land Transport Act 1998 and the Privacy Act 2020 (part 7, in particular, which authorises the disclosure of this information in certain circumstances). Waka Kotahi (and its agents) may also use some of these particulars to provide you with information relating to driver licensing and driving, or to contact you for feedback on our services.

To assist in keeping the Electoral Roll up-to-date, the Electoral Enrolment Centre operates an authorised information matching programme with Waka Kotahi under s263B of the Electoral Act 1993.

To keep the Driver Licence Register up-to-date Waka Kotahi also operates an authorised information matching programme with Births, Deaths and Marriages. Please refer to the Privacy section of our website for more information.

You are entitled to access, and request the correction of, any readily retrievable personal information held about you by Waka Kotahi. You can do so by writing to us at Private Bag 11777, Palmerston North 4442 or by emailing us at info@nzta.govt.nz
